Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a manuscript or letter. The text is written in a single column and appears to be in a historical or religious context. The script is dense and flowing, with many ligatures and variations in letter height. The paper is aged and shows signs of wear, including discoloration and some small dark spots. The text is written in a dark ink, possibly iron gall or a similar historical pigment. The overall appearance is that of a well-preserved but clearly old document.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely Persian or Urdu, covering the entire page. The text is arranged in approximately 12 horizontal lines. The ink is dark brown or black, and the paper is aged and slightly discolored. There is a small, dark circular mark or hole near the center of the page, slightly to the right of the middle. The handwriting is fluid and continuous, with some variations in line spacing and character size.

22

Main body of handwritten text in a cursive script, spanning most of the page width and height.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely Persian or Urdu, spanning the length of the page. The text is written in dark ink on aged, slightly discolored paper. There are two prominent dark circular marks, possibly holes or ink smudges, located approximately one-third and two-thirds of the way across the page. The script is dense and flowing, with many small, connected characters.

13

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a letter or document. The text is written on a piece of aged, yellowish paper with two visible holes. The script is dense and fills most of the page.

4. The $\mathcal{L}_1$ norm is used to measure the difference between the estimated and true parameters.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or manuscript. The text is written in a single column and appears to be a continuous narrative or record. The script is dense and characteristic of early modern European handwriting. There are several dark ink blotches or holes visible in the center of the page, which may be due to damage or intentional markings. The text is written on a light-colored, aged paper.
